CALL TO ORDER

RULES OF CONDUCT FOR PUBLIC HEARING

The Rules of Conduct for the Public Hearing were presented by Chairman, Ken Allen.

Representative Douglas Jennings, Jr. requested that the sign in sheet be circulated for signatures. He also requested that Council allow one party who wished to make a presentation with power point and maps to have more than the three minute time limit.

Chairman Allen responded that anyone who had not had the chance to sign in could come forward and sign. The three minute time limit was to be adhered to by all that wanted to speak.

OPEN THE PUBLIC HEARING

Ordinance # 545A – An Ordinance to repeal the Zoning Ordinance and to adopt a revised Zoning Ordinance for the County of Marlboro, South Carolina. A copy of the Recommended Poultry related Zoning Ordinance revisions was available for the public.

Ms. Anna Caton called each party that had signed up to speak to the podium. A copy of all speakers is attached.

Comments were received in opposition of the ordinance as well as some in support of the ordinance.

The public hearing was closed after all individuals that had signed in had the opportunity to speak.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned.

Minutes were adopted February 10, 2005

Susan E. Rivers, Clerk to Council
